

Biography

Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master Kendall T. Moore, Esq.

Kendall T. Moore is a native of Brevard County, Florida. He was educated in the Brevard County School System and continued his education at Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Urban Studies (Concentration - Urban and Regional Planning) and at the University of Florida where he received a law degree.

He is currently the managing partner of Kendall Moore Law, PLLC. The firm's practice focuses in the areas of personal injury and wrongful death. Brother Moore is also the principal of Space Coast Strategy, Inc., a governmental relations and political consulting firm which handles local government matters across Central Florida.

In November of 2000, he was elected to the Rockledge City Council. He was re-elected without opposition in November of 2003 and served as the Council's Chairman and City's Vice Mayor in 2004. With all the other constraints on his time, Brother Moore still manages to dedicate time to various religious, civic and social causes in his local community. He is also the recipient of a variety of awards and recognitions including the United Way Bridge Builder Award; "4 Under 40" Award (top four leaders under the age of 40) from LEAD Brevard; one of the 100 Most Powerful People On The Space Coast and Business Leader of the Year in the area of Community Leadership both as designated by Space Coast Business Magazine.

Fraternally, he was initiated into Bloody Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., at Morehouse College in the Spring of 1991.

Masonically, he followed in the footsteps of his father and was raised at Cocoa Lodge #55. Brother Moore's son Ty Moore, also a member of Cocoa Lodge # 55, making him the third generation of that family to serve in the lodge. At Cocoa Lodge #55, Brother Moore has served as Secretary, Junior Warden, Senior Warden and three years as Worshipful Master. As a Past Master, he served as the Assistant District Deputy Grand Master for the 20th Masonic District. Currently, Kendall T. Moore serves as the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master for the Most Worshipful Union Grand Lodge of Florida, Belize, Central America & Jurisdiction.

Brother Moore is a member in good standing of other Masonic houses including The Florida Council of Deliberation; the Most Excellent Union Grand Chapter, Holy Royal Arch Masons, P.H.A.; the Illustrious Union Grand Council of Royal And Select Masters of the State of Florida, P.H.A.; Union Grand Commandery #22, Magnanimous Order of Knights Templar Masons, Florida, U.S. Virgin Islands and Jurisdiction, P.H.A., Inc.; AEAONMS – Desert of Florida; and the Fred M. Moore, Jr. Union Grand Council, Order of the Knights of Pythagoras.

Additionally, Brother Moore became an Honorary 33rd Degree Mason in the Howard L. Woods Class of 2017 and was eventually elevated to Sovereign Grand Inspector General (Emeritus).

Brother Moore is happily married to Dr. Kelley Moore, and they have two wonderful children, Brother Kendall T. Moore, II (also known as Ty) and Kaelyn.
